Tani Q

Galerie Ashiya Schule

11 June - 3 July 2016

Opening Saturday 11 June 2016, 5-6:30 pm

Beginning 11 June 2016, Galerie Ashiya Schule will present the solo exhibition by Tani Q entitled □□-□□.

Born in Seiuemon Pottery in Shigaraki, Tani Q was graduated from Seian University of Arts and Design (sculptor class), he joined in domestic and foreign exhibitions as an assistant of sculptor, Katsushige Nakahashi.

He creates works like Old Shigaraki in middle age, Muromachi period.

He has made twin hole kiln (old Shigaraki style), single hole kiln, and Ittekoil kiln.

Begun in Kamakura Period, Shigaraki has led various Japanese culture, as Wabi Sabi.

The fundamental search for beings through Yakimono is the core of Tani Q's works.

Tani Q's works are not merely the imitations, but the questioning the meaning of old Shigaraki. He was chosen as a member of "upbringing project.newcomers of art,craft and design in University museum". The theme□□-□□ means that Utsuro(□□-□□) and Hito(人) makes Utsuwa(器) in chinese character.

Tani Q is already a step ahead of Old Shigaraki.

This exhibition intends to show the internal expression, which we cannot directly take contact with, as the mirror of Japanese spirituality.
